Golden High School Golden, Colorado

There's a high school out at Golden
That excels from all the rest.
It's excelling in athletics;
Its standards are the best.
All the boys and girls are loyal,
True blue as the sky.
We will always stick together
For the honor of Golden High.

Dedication

Katherine Tait

The yearbook staff has chosen to honor a person whose pleasing personality and winning smile touches many phases of life at Golden High School.

Her willingness to help in all areas of school administration, club activities and office procedures makes her indispensable to the smooth operation of our school.

To Katherine Tait, who has given outstanding service to the faculty and students of Golden High School in their many academic and extra-curricular activities, we proudly dedicate the '64 Maroon and White.

The multitudinous phone calls during the course of a day only seem to accentuate the pleasant personality of Mrs. Tait.

An executive secretary could not have more varied and important responsibilities. School records and correspondence add to the long list of duties Katherine accomplishes with dignity and understanding.

She is also responsible for the accurate records of the numerous bank accounts of the school-sponsored clubs.

During the summer of 1963, Mr. and Mrs. Tait and Anita spent several unforgettable weeks in Germany visiting daughter Elaine and family. Various points of interest on the continent were included in the itinerary of the most eventful trip.

Katherine is serving as president of the Jefferson County Association of Secretaries and attended the 29th Annual Convention of the National Association of Educational Secretaries as a voting delegate at the University of Delaware at Newark. She has earned her Professional Standards Certificate.

Business

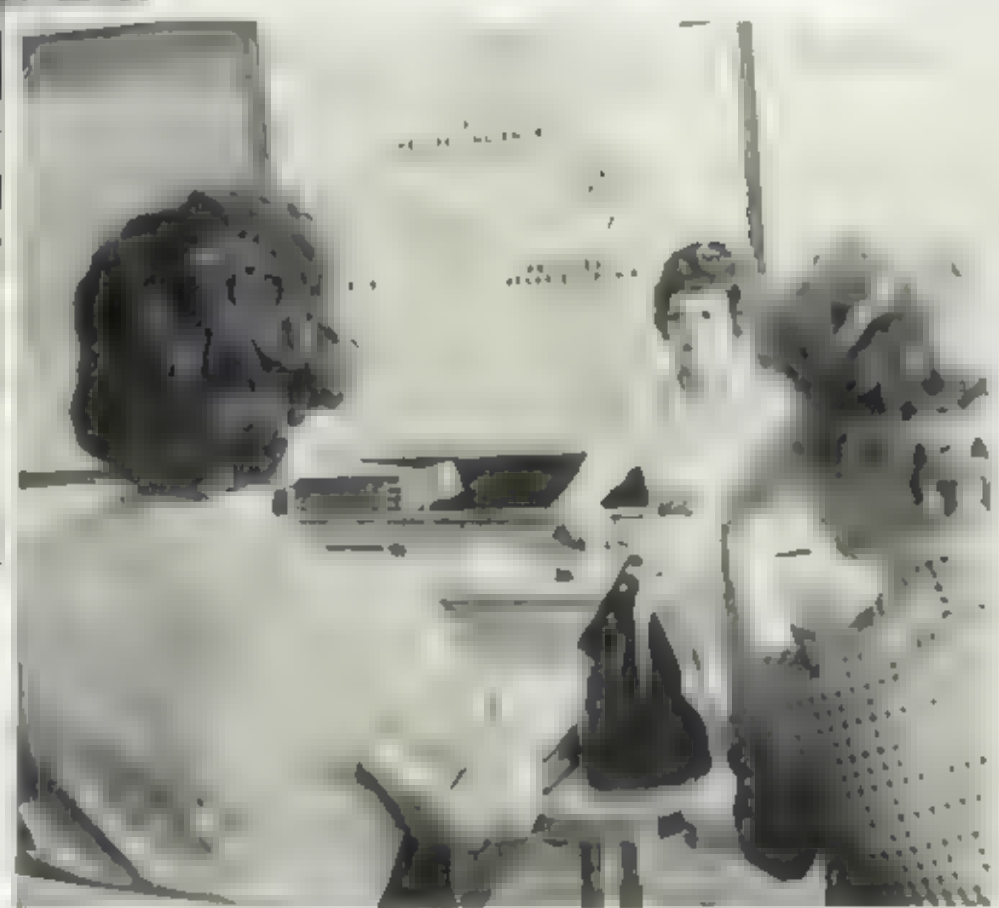

Eileen Biggs Banks
B.S., East Central State

Dorothy Jane Moore
B.S., Oklahoma State U.

The prime mission of the business department is to provide students with the means of earning a livelihood by equipping them with the skills that make for proficiency in secretarial jobs.

Freda Klein Reitz
B.A., Colorado State College

The department also strives to educate students in social skills and give them a knowledge of the basic realities of business life.

Non-technical courses are typing for personal use, note-hand, and general business.

English aims at teaching boys and girls the English skills needed for success and happiness in today's world.

Whether the student enters the armed forces, goes to work, or attends college, he must demonstrate scholastic, social, and linguistic competence.

The high school graduate will continue to be surrounded by the mass media with their pervasive influence on all he does. He must be able to observe keenly, read critically, and before acting, he is expected to think.

The foreign language department offers the opportunity of studying on four levels one or more languages: Latin, Spanish, French, Russian and German. As he devotes his time to communication in that language, he becomes acquainted with the literature, history, and culture of the people of those areas. Thus he has a more sympathetic understanding of the world in which he lives--a world of so many peoples and tongues but more and more one world.

Library

Christa Klein Coon
B.A., Texas Women's Univ.

Do you know . . .
who Cyrus Sturgis is?
what pithecanthropus means?
how many molecules are in a mole?

The answers to these and other questions you may have are only a few of the facts and figures you may find in the latest additions to our always expanding reference section. In addition, this year we are concentrating upon improving our professional library by adding numerous learned magazines and scholarly books. Mrs. Coon and her student assistants are also busily revising the history and biography sections.

Home Economics

Beth Nelms
B S., Texas Tech. College

The education of girls for the responsibilities of home and family is the primary objective of homemaking.

Because of the complex role played by the modern homemaker, it is important for high school girls to learn the basic homemaking skills and learn something of the responsibilities of a wife and mother. This is accomplished through the study of family relationships and child care, foods and nutrition, consumer economics, clothing and textiles, and housing and home furnishings. Various individual and group projects are completed during the year in order to perfect the home skills.

Mathematics

Palma Mark
M.S., Univ. of Wisconsin

Ed Herber
MBS., University of Colorado

The GHS math program offers courses for many different levels of ability. The more able student can earn advanced college placement and college credit in mathematics by successfully completing the accelerated track of the Golden High math program.

Other tracks provide the traditional math courses through trigonometry. The student who does not intend to enroll in college has available at the senior level, a math course in elementary topics in algebra, geometry and trigonometry which will give him a math background necessary in many non-technical forms of employment.

Physical Education

Boys' physical education is dedicated to the development of the five physical attributes: (1) physical power, (2) agility, (3) coordination, (4) endurance and (5) body build. Some of the more outstanding phases of work are rope skipping, weight training, Canadian Air Force exercises, gymnastics, combative games and running activities.

Emphasis is on carry-over value type activities. In one year girls would have knowledge and skill to keep physically fit, always. Individual sports, gymnastics and apparatus and team sports serve as competitive sports which create sportsmanship, skill and a desire to excel. Advanced students have an opportunity to become rated basketball officials. This requires considerable knowledge of rules and the ability to referee games.

Science

Art Papenfus
M.A., Colorado State College

Tom Steinke
B.S., M.S., Brigham Young

Biology is a very popular course primarily for sophomores. Most of the students are studying biology using the interrelationship of organisms as an approach. One class, however, is studying from the viewpoint of molecular structure. Both courses were designed by the biological science curriculum study.

Physics is primarily a junior subject and is using material designed by the Physical Science Study Committee.

Chemistry, which is primarily for seniors, is also using new material designed by the Chemistry Study Group.

Ralph Bishop
B.A., M.A., LL.B., Univ. of Colo.

Social Studies at GHS are designed to help prepare the young citizen to make intelligent decisions about the various problems encountered during the process of everyday living. These problems are generally divided into three classes: social, economic and political. Consequently, the basic courses are world history and American history required of all students.

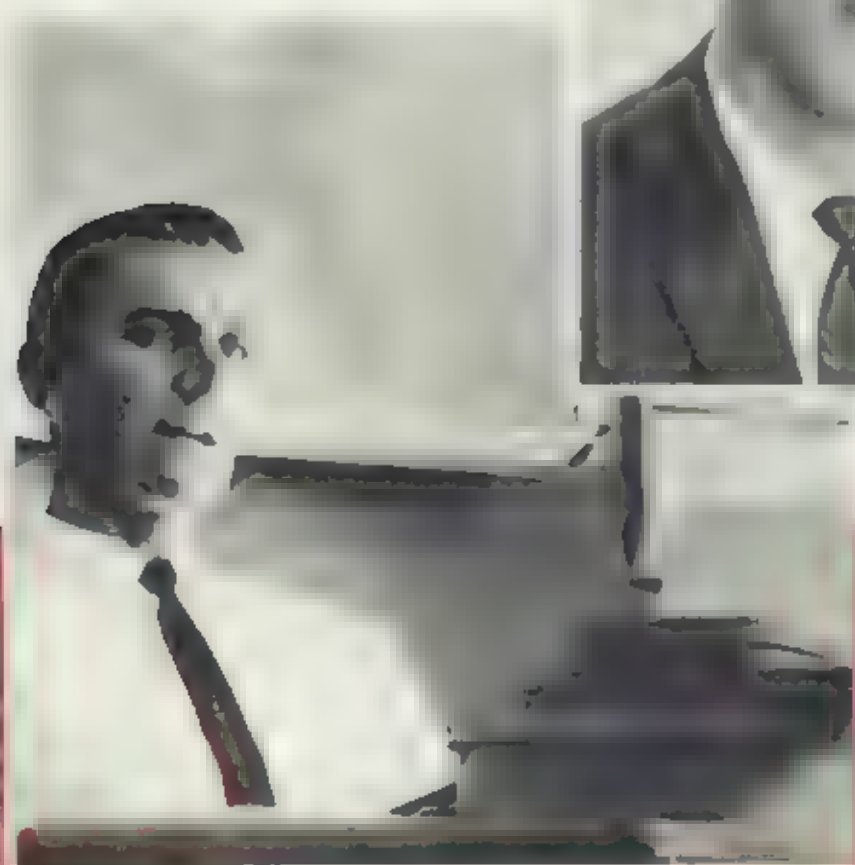

Sociology, economics, and government and law are offered as electives.

Exchange Students

Ingvor was born in Gothenburg on the west coast of Sweden. In the winter her family lives in an apartment in the suburbs, but in summer they move out to their home on the coast.

Schools in her homeland differ greatly from those in America. When she returns to Sweden, she will enter the field of math, physics and chemistry. She will also take courses in religion, geography, history, Swedish literature and composition, art, music and physical education.

She belongs to two sports clubs, one for swimming and one for track, cross-country and skiing. During the past summer, she placed fifth in the 800 meter Swedish National.

Ingvor Christina Astrom

While in Golden, Ingvor is a guest of Ray and Doris Frost and their daughter Christy.

Subjects Ingvor is taking at GHS are physics, French IV, English IV, speech, sociology and economics and advanced physical education.

Ingvor is enjoying school social functions, Pep Club, skiing and participated in cross country with the boys' team.

Kathryn Louise Payne

Kathy has the unique privilege of attending Tochterschule III (Frauenbildungschule) in Zurich, Switzerland, as a senior. Subjects include German, French, English, pedagogics, history of art, world history, social studies and economics, biology, art, hygiene, physical education, handicrafts, and singing . . . 36 hours of classes each week.

Popl Fredy Knorr, a graphic designer, explaining an exhibit he is preparing.

On vacation in Sardinia.

Kathy's complaint of Switzerland is that there is not enough of it. It's too small.

The Alps are so green! Rugged and straight down to a small green valley. "I feel quite Alpine--standing on top of a huge mountain, seeing the rugged mountains, grassy meadows and beautiful flowers. It's so beautiful!"

The Knorr family includes father, mother, Doris (Mami), Michaela, 17, (Micha) Christina, 12, and Stephan, 6. Their hospitality and typical Swiss and German cooking specialties are a thrilling experience.

Kathy and Micha on bridge near Gross-Munster, left, where they attend school for some classes.

Voice of Youth members, Terri Monarchi, William Spaniel, and Pat Ziegler, participated in a panel discussion on Channel 7 on November 10. The topic was "November, '64, the Candidates and the Parties."

Mr. William Wright, founder of Voice of Youth, was moderator and Dr. Curtis Martin was guest speaker.

Chip Parfet and Janet Dillingham were presented the Edith and Sidney Morton Memorial Awards on October 14 at the Masonic Temple in Golden.

Beautiful trophies were presented by Heston D. Adams to Janet and Chip as deserving of the citizenship awards.

Caren Rivers was awarded a plaque by the Golden Optimist Club for being the most deserving average GHS student. Qualifications were good average academic grades, over-all enthusiasm, citizenship and participation in extra-curricular activities.

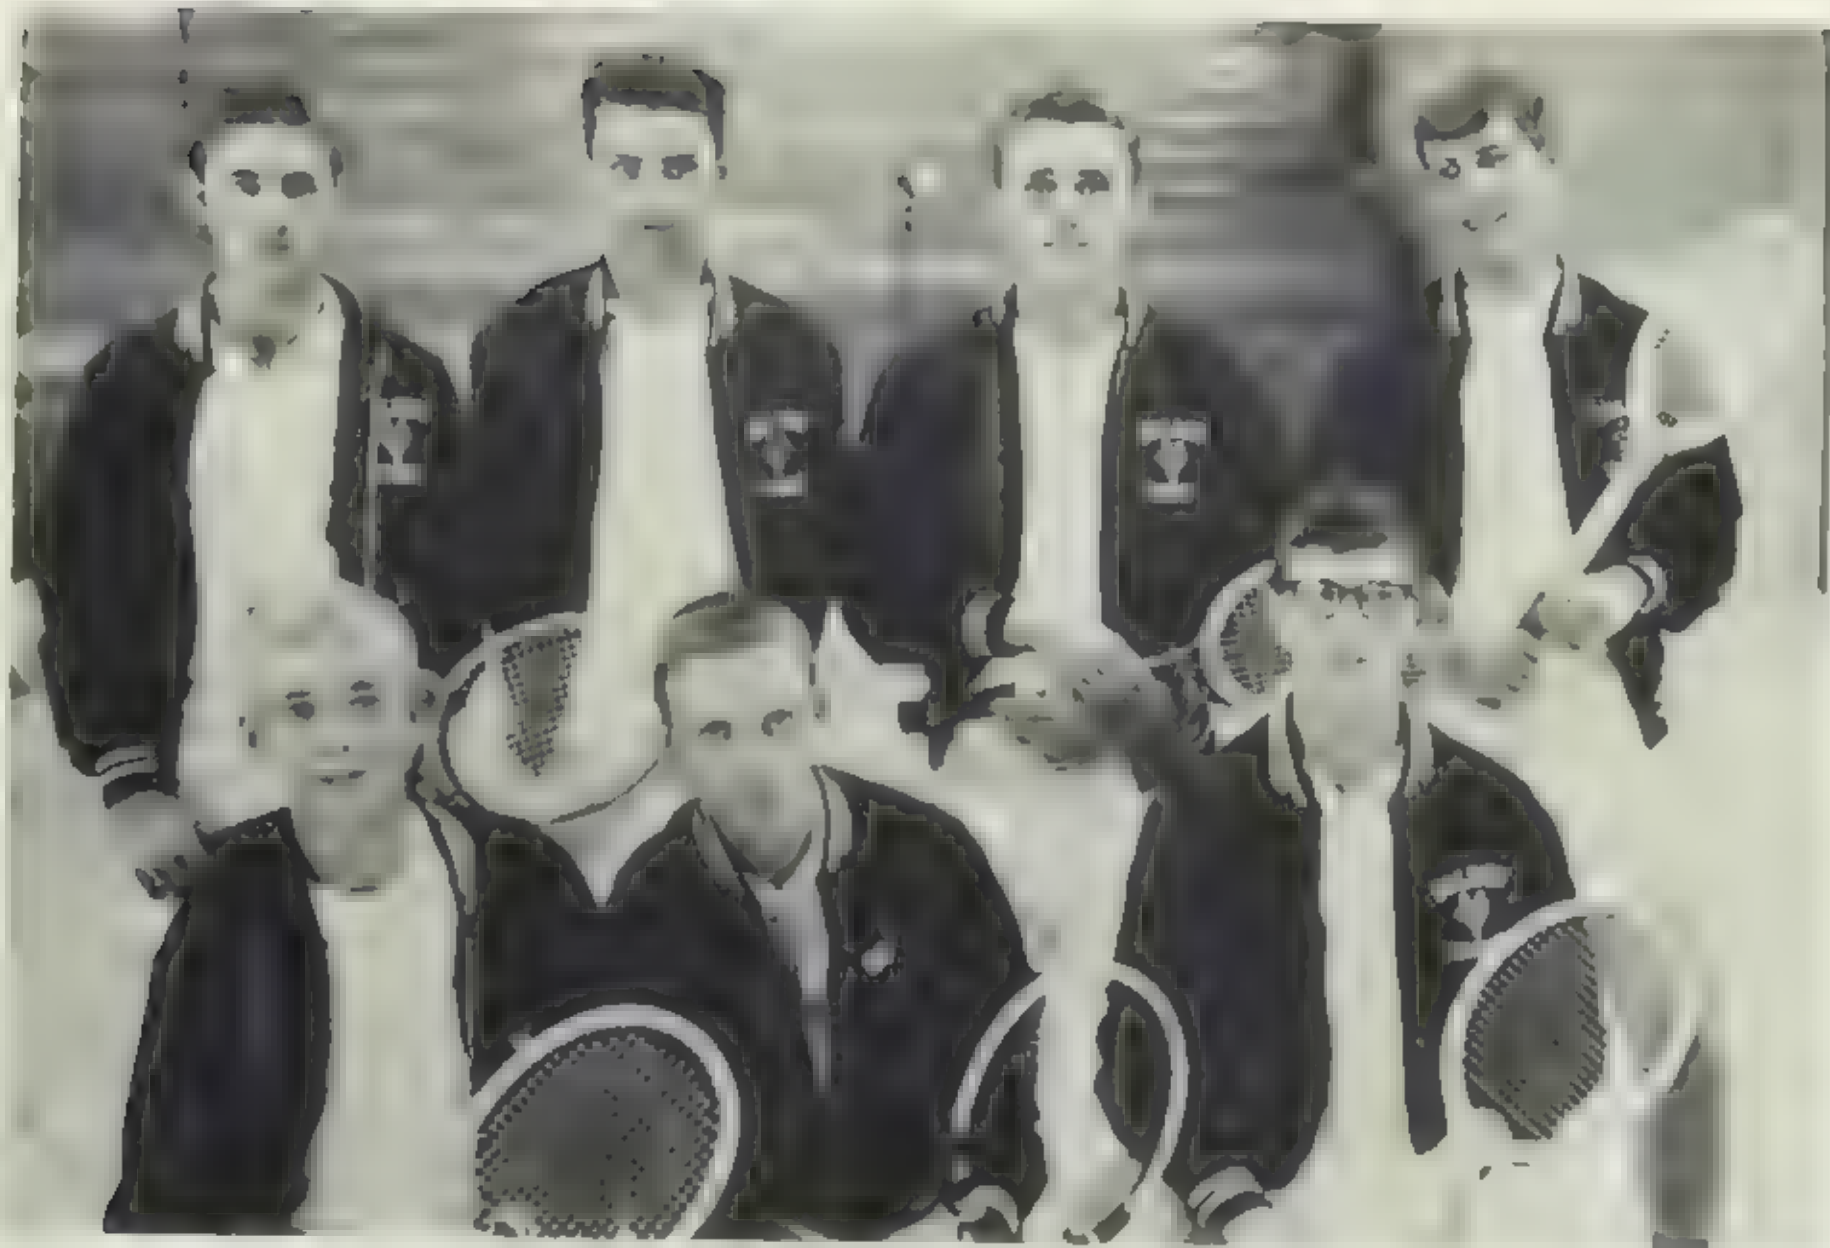

All State Choir, composed of Frank Johnson, Danny Hollaus, Diane Poolman, and Cheryl Christian, went to the University of Denver for a statewide gathering of chosen singers on October 24, 25, and 26.

Sophomore Week

HAIL CLASS OF '64

GOLDEN will stop

M-I-C . . . K-E-Y . . . M-O-U . .

The first week of high school for the lowly sophomore is one of apprehension and wonder: apprehension of what will be expected of him in being initiated into the school of higher education and wonder at whether they will become familiar with our campus-style school.

Each day of the first week a new talent was revealed: one day the boys carried dolls, while the girls dared not to curl their hair or wear make-up for fear of detection by the observing senior girls. The entire class had to be able to sound off at any given moment with either the school song (which they were required to know by the first week) or "Hail Class of '64!" The boys had to curtsy and the girls had to bow before they could address a senior. There was an abundance of romanticism the first week in spite of the hilarity of sophomores making proposals (at the request of a senior) to those whom they had never even met. The spirit of initiation week was also evident in the cafeteria as sophomores acted as busboys for the seniors, had to be last in the lunchline, and also had to stand up when eating. Regardless of the seniors' overbearance the first week, the sophomore class took everything in high spirit and have become an essential part of our great school.

Assembly Skits

The various school clubs and organizations are responsible for presenting skits at the pep assemblies. High point of the year is the skit by the faculty prior to the homecoming football game.

SITTING: Scott Arndt, Cheryl Wright, Marilyn Piggley, Brian Cope, Cheryl White, Lynn Van Horn, Doug Blount, Jan Kreamelmeier, Rex Paulus and Gene Pickthall

Chief purposes of Student Council are to create a greater sense of cooperation and responsibility among the students, to promote a better student-teacher relationship and to foster a feeling of school spirit throughout the student body by encouraging student participation in all activities and organizations of the school.

Singing the school song and playing "Ring around the Rosy" are only a few of the sophomore antics

The entire week is all in fun and the sophomores then become full-fledged members of Golden High School.

FRONT ROW: Terri Monarchi, Earl Schwartzkopf, Joe Hammett and Terri Elliott
 SECOND ROW: Jack Michalko, Ron Brown, Kathy Goodrich and Anna Bell Moberly
 BACK ROW: Steve Hatchell, Ron Britton, Trudy Allen and John Colli

The Speech Team enters competition in Debate, Oratory, Interpretation, Discussion, and Extemporaneous speaking. They have received many commendable ratings. They participated in the Denver University contest on February 14 and 15 competing against students from the entire Rocky Mountain region. Divisional competition was February 28 and 29.

BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

Clare Ryland and Marilyn Lindell were chosen by the American Legion Auxiliary to attend Girls' State at the campus of Colorado Woman's College. By virtue of their election to student body offices, Gary Diers and Dick Gorn attended Boys' State on the CU campus.

They studied parliamentary procedure and then came to Denver where students were in charge of capitol business for a full day. Gary and Dick were senators and were responsible for passage of an education bill which would teach the basics of Communism in comparison with our democratic system.

Kristy Venckus, Cheryl White and Nancy Easley received perfect scores on two 100-word spelling tests distributed by the Denver Chapter of NOMA.

Kristy also received perfect scores on two NOMA Math tests.

Future Teachers of America

Students considering teaching as a career are the nucleus of Future Teachers of America. They ask and try to answer such questions as: Why and what should I teach? At what level should I teach? What are the advantages and disadvantages of teaching?

Since experience often helps resolve questions, the members visit classrooms, see teachers in action, visit our educational institutions, see films, and listen to lectures about teaching.

FTA is open to anyone who wants to become or thinks he might want to become a teacher. Membership in FTA offers a student the chance to improve his character; to study and observe challenging problems of the profession; to explore his skills and interests; and to discuss and work with those of similar aptitudes.

Purposes of the Voice of Youth are to:

Encourage creative thinking.

Define specifically the thinking and aspirations of youth after careful research and study.

Develop techniques and methods for expression of opinions formulated.

Prepare American youth for patriotic leadership at home and abroad, capable of assuming diplomatic posts

Foster better understanding of the problem of creating a durable peace.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

1961-1963

In Memoriam

President John F. Kennedy

1917-1963

With shocking suddenness the young President Kennedy was stricken while newscasts of the assassination of our country's leader. The news of this November 22 could not be fully comprehended as students sat in their classrooms, engaged in the ritual of attending classes while listening for final news of this terrible event. It was a tragedy.

Near the end of this terrible day, the grief was replaced by a haunting awareness of what had transpired. Students were to witness a parade flowing down the nation of television, the final return of our 35th president to his home, and then final resting place in Arlington. Grief-stricken mourners from all nations of the world paid their final tribute to a young, vigorous leader of the American people.

Youth had identified itself with the youngest of all American presidents through the physical fitness and Peace Corps programs. Voice of Youth organizations had debated policies pro and con with assurances that this was their right in a democracy.

Of our deceased president we say, "He asked, 'What can I do for my country?' and answered with deeds which will be long remembered by a grateful nation."

Let the word go forth from this time and place that the torch has been passed to a new generation of Americans born in this century, dedicated to the same ideals, a harder and better peace, proud of our ancient heritage.

There is an appointed time for every thing, a time to be born and a time to die, a time to love and a time to hate, a time to weep and a time to laugh.

INDUSTRIES

GOLDEN, COLORADO

Remember . . .

When ten sleepy girls pushed Chris's Volkswagon up a 50⁰ hill on Lookout?

When Hurl had her wild party on the mountain in '62 and the girls were chased by the club officials?

When the mighty 9th grade boys removed Mousy McKinster's door hinges from the library?

Jamie's senior party??

When the Charity Wagon terrorized Golden?

When Kapke wasn't in court?

When we adored Mr. Bethel?

Leslie's pool-hopping slumber party??

When Lynn had dishwater BROWN hair?

Hoffa's warm welcome to Golden?

Room service at the Hilton?

When cafeteria lunches were tasty and nourishing?

When Dick and Peggy weren't fighting?

When Mrs. Lemmon and Mr. Bridge associated?

When the senior boys started bleaching their hair?

When our senior boys didn't wear madras and white levis?

When the senior girls had a crush on Tommy Verra from Ft. Collins?

Lynn's after-prom party in '62 and the witch!?

Joyce's party in her basement the refreshments!?

When Virginia liked Ron Vogeler?

When we went to Lakewood and ? Norma's slit tires!?

When Cheryl fell off Jerry's Volkswagon?

Clare's pizza party in '62?

When Hauff wasn't going with Jack?

When Gary Jessen was "top eliminator" of the '64 junior picnic?

When the fad was to own a Cushman? Now it's sidewalk surfing!

Seniors

When Hurland Joyce spent most of the night behind Flansburg's couch because they were afraid to come out?

When the yo-yo fad hit Golden and Norm could do "around the world"?

When we used to get the Morrow twins mixed up? We still do.

When the Three Musketeers spent the night together?

The West Drive-In and the drags at Castle Rock?

When only seniors were Homecoming Queen nominees?

Miss Logan saying, "Petty and trifling, sly and sneaky"?

When Charlie was embarrassed to play the drums?

When the girls had a crush on Mr. Nelson?

When Norma fed Willie in Kangaroo Court?

Bill, Ron and Jim had to eat mayonnaise?

Mrs. Banks saying, "Well, I tell you"?

When the pep club bus went to Pueblo and broke down?

When we had Olive Fassett? Remember Fassett's Faucet?

When Ray Roberts didn't get a ticket or stopped?

When Kitty didn't like Don Nelson?

When Bunny liked "Biggy Bear"?

When Danny's hair was orange?

When Pam liked Stuart Jones?

When Earl Split his lip?

When Cynthia had braces?

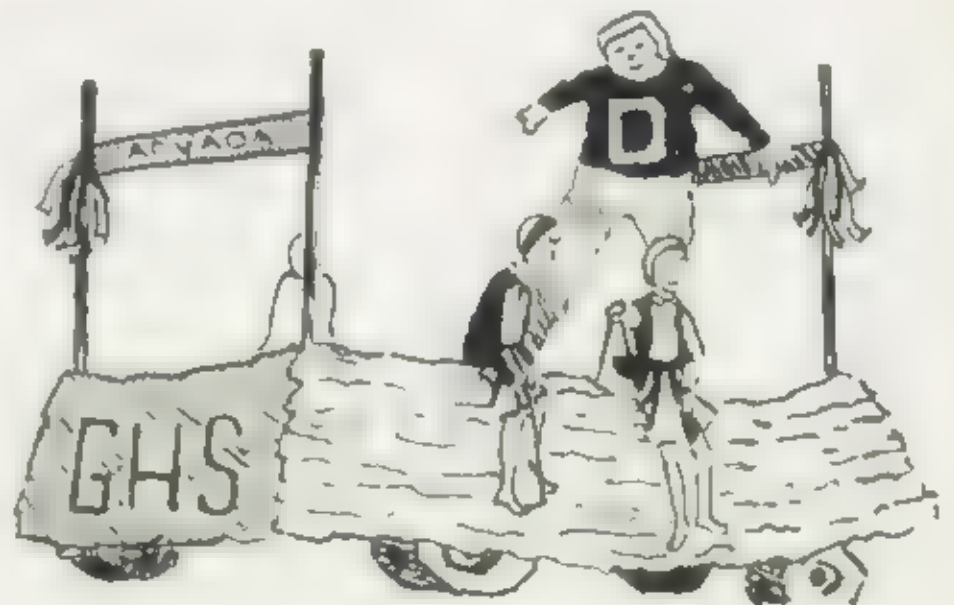

When Janyce didn't rat her hair?

E. A., girls????

When Caren Rivers stalked giants?

When the seniors built their Homecoming float?

When Yo-Yo Yavuz first bounced into Golden?
